Sacraments

Baptism For more information, please visit the parish website. Baptism classes are generally held at 10am on the first Saturday of every month. Please call the office to register for class or register through the parish website.

Eucharist, Confirmation, & Sacrament of the Sick
Contact the parish office.

Reconciliation Every Saturday 12-1 pm or contact Fr. Jeff anytime for an appointment.

Holy Orders Contact Father Mike Hennigan at (859) 392-1500.

Matrimony You must contact the parish at least six months in advance to the desired date. Please complete a Wedding Registration form to schedule a wedding. It is a good idea to confirm the date with the parish first before reserving a reception hall as that date may not be available. For more information, please visit the parish website.

Fr. Jeff & Spiritual Direction

Learning self awareness in order to help know God's call:

We are starting a very affirming approach to evangelization and our participation in evangelization with a small assessment based on Clifton Strengths.

The Lord has given us many strengths and these generally are life giving.

Often times, people want to find their place in the parish community and in the work of evangelization to which we are all called.

But we can end up in an area which does not give life giving energy. So the purpose of the assessment and a little coaching is to help find where God is calling us to serve.

We will be using this tool to help parishioners more in the future. Please stay tuned.

We need to affirm the strengths with which the Lord has blessed us .

Christ's peace, Fr jeff

Sick & Homebound

If you know of someone in our parish that is: in the hospital, nursing home, sick and/or is homebound, or is in need of the sacrament of the anointing of the sick, please notify us by calling the parish office or email the secretary. Due to privacy laws we are no longer automatically notified unless someone tells us. Please help us serve our fellow brothers and sisters in the parish that are in need of this ministry. Your help in serving them is welcomed and greatly appreciated!

Thank you and Christ's Peace,

Fr. Jeff

Ever wonder what a Liturgical Wheel Calendar is? Each spoke in the calendar represents a week. Weeks begin on the Lord's Day, Sunday, (the outer rim of the wheel.) and end on Saturday (the inner hub). Liturgical times are shown, as well as the Sacred Paschal Triduum, and Ordinary time.

The Year of Grace 2025

Christian Hospitality

This year's calendar is inspired by the theme of Christian hospitality, which is much more than a pleasure of welcome or greeting. It is receiving others as they are, as Christ would receive them. What we recognize that all people are children of God, we respond to each person we meet with love, openness, and a genuine desire to serve them as Jesus has modeled for us in the Gospels.

In the upper left, a parish openly welcomes all members of the Church community, meet, two children showing how they are hospitable to the earth and God's creation are seen in the upper right. Then, in the lower right, a picture of outdoor fun demonstrates that we are all one in Christ, and finally, the welcoming of strangers who are vulnerable and in need of care is portrayed in the lower left. In each depiction, a comforting glow of warmth and light reminds us that hospitality draws us out of the darkness and into the welcoming radiance of Jesus. Hospitality is one way that we allow the Light of the World to shine within and through us. When we demonstrate Christian hospitality, the Light shines brightly, and we all share in the gift that is Jesus.

The center scene is a depiction of Jesus washing the feet of his disciples. In washing their feet, Jesus teaches his disciples that just as he serves them, they are obliged to serve others with the same humility (John 13). Subsequent to this Gospel scene, Jesus gives his disciples a mandatum, Latin for "commandment" (John 13:34-35). Jesus loved others and welcomed all into his presence. This is what Christian hospitality means—to love and serve others. It is within the walls of our local parish church that we can first identify ourselves as part of a larger community of faith, where our talents and gifts are valued and essential to creating a welcoming community (Matthew 18:20). Hospitality is not limited to the people of God; it extends to caring for all of God's creation, including natural resources, the plants and animals—every part of the earth we call home. In both Laudato Si and Laudate Deum, Pope Francis tells us that creation is a holy and precious gift from God that we should nurture and care for. We are reminded that when we are truly hospitable to God's creation, when we welcome all people into our lives no matter our differences, we acknowledge each other as children of God. If we recognize that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ, we acknowledge the love of God that is present within all of us. We become aware of the profound unity that exists among all those who are baptized. When we are open and attentive to others in hospitality, we are willing to listen to others and their experiences and to be open to new understandings and possibilities for enrichment (Galatians 3:28). Hospitality was essential to life in ancient times (Hebrews 13:2), and today we are called to greet, welcome, and care for others as if they were angels or Jesus knocking on our door. The lower left scene on our calendar shows how Christians might receive unsuspected guests who are the poor, marginalized, and displaced persons; welcome them warmly, invite them in, and provide all that they may need.

Fulfilled: Uncovering the Biblical Foundations of Catholicism

Part 1: Called into His Presence

Mondays, February 17 th – March 31 st 6:45-8pm

at the Mercy Risen Center

Have you ever been unable to explain the “why” of Catholic beliefs? Have you ever wondered why the Old Testament sounds so different from the New Testament? In the Old Testament, God began building a plan and laying a foundation for the beautiful traditions of the Catholic Faith. That plan was fulfilled by Jesus in the New Testament. Fulfilled: Uncovering the Biblical Foundations of Catholicism is an apologetic approach to sharing the Catholic Faith using the Old Testament Tabernacle as a blueprint for God’s plan. While it is designed as a faith-sharing Scripture study, you will also gain an understanding of some of the most questioned Catholic teachings. Fulfilled will reignite your love of Scripture and help you share and defend the Catholic Faith with the Word of God.

Fulfilled will help you ...

- Explain how Jesus fulfills the Old Testament
    - Share the Catholic Faith concisely
  - Acquire a thorough knowledge of the Tabernacle’s design and its function as a blueprint for the Faith
  - Learn how to answer incomplete and non-Catholic interpretations of the Bible
- Examine your own faith and grow deeper in your relationship with Christ
