Lesson

The spiritual life is not about what we are doing. It's about what God is doing in us, through us, and with us-when we surrender and make ourselves available to Him.

Virtue of the day

.Surrender: The virtue of surrender leads to tranquility. If you find yourself wrestling with every situation or doing battle with every person, it's time to explore why you are so insistent on imposing your will on every person and situation. The secret to surrendering to God is knowing your responsibilities and being clear about His responsibilities. Our willingness to surrender says a lot about our understanding of God.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Jesus,

I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Every day I long for more of You.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot receive You sacramentally at this moment, I invite You to come and dwell in my heart.

May this spiritual communion increase my desire for the Eucharist.

You are the healer of my soul.

Take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart.

Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do Your will in all things.

My Lord and my God, draw me close to You, nearer than ever before.

Amen.

Want to be a Cursillta? Weekends forming now!! - Cursillo is a short course in Christianity. To try to explain a Cursillo to someone who has never experienced it is difficult and somewhat mystifying. The reason behind the mystery is God! No one can fully explain how God touches each person in His special and unique way.

RCIA Catechumen Cash Michael Burns from St. Patrick Parish RCIA was featured in a recent article in The Messenger!

8 March 15, 2024

'I think I'm Catholic and I just don't know it,' says catechumen

Bella Young

Multimedia Correspondent

Growing up in a Pentecostal home, Cash Burns, a catechumen at St. Patrick Parish in Taylor Mill, said he did not always believe everything his church taught. Mr. Burns said that, though he was 12 years old when he started attending Pentecostal services, he knew he disagreed with certain things.

"I started going there when I was 12 ... some beliefs I never adopted." This led him to look elsewhere for God, and he found it in the form of a rosary.

"I started researching the prayers, the Hail Mary and the Our Father, and started to agree with it ... I texted my friends and said, 'I think I might be Catholic and just don't know it.'"

It was one of these friends that recommended he attend Mass at St. Patrick Church in Taylor Mill and see what he thought. Mr. Burns recalls his first Mass as a "culture shock." Saying that everyone was very quiet and respectful, "it was very peaceful."

At a service at his Pentecostal church Mr. Burns realized he needed to officially convert.

"I did have a moment where I realized I was switching to Catholicism — it was in a Pentecostal church. I had been going to the service for weeks and weeks and weeks. Then, one Sunday night, I was invited up to play bass. Then he [the minister] started talking about money ... he just kept begging people for money, and finally I walked out."

Once he started RCIA classes at St. Patrick Parish, he said it was RCIA coordinator Melinda Zickfoose and pastor, Father Jeffrey VonLehmen, that helped him sustain his faith journey. He even asked Mrs. Zickfoose to be his sponsor.

"Melinda and Father Jeff have always answered my questions, and if they don't know, they have an answer by the time I come back next week," he said.

Since beginning to attend Mass regularly, Mr. Burns said he is most looking forward to receiving the Eucharist. "To see people take it weekly and be happy. Just the peace and serenity. You can feel the love in the air," he said. "No one's looking at you, judging you ... there's a certain peace around it."

Carson will lead us in the Divine Mercy Chaplet - bring your rosary

The incredible story of Carson Kissell and his family who learned to trust in God by radically living and spreading God's Divine Mercy!

Carson and his younger brother suffer from a rare painful skin disease, Epidermolysis Bullosa (EB), that makes the skin so fragile it can tear at the slightest touch. They are bandaged from neck to feet to protect the skin. Every other day they painfully remove the bandages, bathe, and replace them. Every day there is pain.

At the beginning of COVID, 12-year-old Carson started praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet on FB for the end of the pandemic and for peoples' personal intentions. This humble gesture of faith went viral when EWTN aired an interview with Carson that received 1 million views! Many people benefited from Carson's prayers; it has also helped to recover his family's joy and peace as they offer up their many daily sufferings. A perfect talk for any age group, showcasing the remedy for suffering: our Eternal God's endless Mercy.
