THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." - Mk 14:23-25

Open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Jesus is waiting for You.

Fr. Jeff & Spiritual Direction

Fr. Jeff will be available in the church at certain times for Spiritual Direction. In the case of youth, please bring another person along. If you have a time scheduled, please feel free to come to the church. He is available for about 20-30 minutes per person. However, he will make himself available for longer if needed. Spiritual Direction is a way to help an individual discern how the spirit is leading the person. The role of a spiritual director is not to direct attention to oneself, rather it is to help the directed focus on Christ and sort out confusion or obstacles. Confession is also available during these times. Please contact Fr. Jeff if you would like to schedule a time to meet with him contact the parish office.

Sick & Homebound

If you know of someone in our parish that is: in the hospital, nursing home, sick and/or is homebound, or is in need of the sacrament of the anointing of the sick, please notify us by calling the parish office or email the secretary. Due to privacy laws we are no longer automatically notified unless someone tells us. Please help us serve our fellow brothers and sisters in the parish that are in need of this ministry. Your help in serving them is welcomed and greatly appreciated!

*Thank you and Christ's Peace,
Fr. Jeff*

Our donations for June will go to:

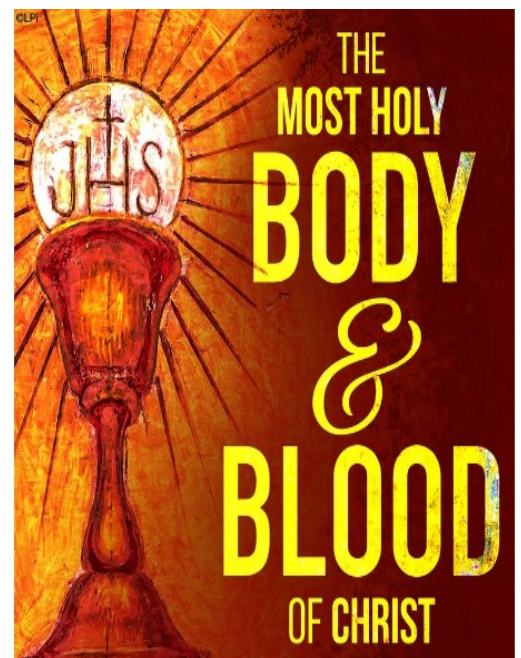

St. Vincent DePaul

They are asking for new or nearly new fans, box size and smaller to assist in their distribution in July for those who qualify and are in need of cooling in their homes.

Please say this prayer when assembling your donation then come place it on the shelf by elevator in the upstairs hallway.

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

Thank you Lord, for making my life free of serious want. Protect those in need with food this day. Give me a chance to nourish the poor through my compassion. Help me to see the hungry and never turn away. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Stewardship Thank you for your almsgiving, as we have much to do for further development of ministries and maintenance here!

From the desk of Father Jeff

Hard to think of yourself as important?

Or as a parish evangelist or missionary?

How about just thinking of yourself as gifted.

Every one is gifted by the Holy Spirit in a unique way to build up the Body of Christ.

The Body of Christ here at St Pat's will continue to grow with its mission to the unchurched, elderly, sick, youth in our area; Of course, we have a special mission to young families with children through the school as well. How will it all blossom? Simply because of how you have been gifted by the Holy Spirit.

We will be introducing to different tools to help you find the strengths and gifts the Holy Spirit has given you. We have also been looking at ways to increase our Love for self and others which free these gifts for the service of others. Most of the time this involves inner work of healing. We have some tools for that as well.

Ananias Training- is a five week series on how to know and share your faith.

Starting on Sunday, June 9th in church from 9:45am to 10:20am.

Fr. Jeff will be leading this series.

Please come, this invitation is for you!

We are on an exciting journey that empowers and frees you to be the significant person you already are in the Body of Christ.

Blessings , fr. jeff

Blessed Carol Acutis

Blessed Carlo Acutis is the first Millennial to be beatified by the Catholic Church. His face has become familiar to many in the US as a result of the USCCB's declaration of a three year Eucharistic Revival, but there is much about this young man's life that can inspire us all to strive for a more intimate relationship with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Carlo was born in England on May 3, 1991 to wealthy Italian parents who moved back to Milan, Italy when he was a few months old. He was a fun loving boy who had many pets, loved movies, soccer, computers and computer games. In many respects he was an ordinary child, but there were also signs of extraordinary virtue from a young age.

Growing up, Carlo's parents were not devoted to the Catholic faith, however he was fascinated by it. Undeterred by his parent's lack of interest, Carlo turned to his Catholic, Polish nanny for answers to his ever increasing interest in the faith. He was drawn to the Eucharist quite young and asked to receive his First Holy Communion at the age of seven. Since it was customary for kids to receive First Communion at the age of ten in his parish, Carlo had to get special permission from the monsignor of a neighboring parish to receive his First Communion there. Carlo called the Blessed Sacrament his "highway to heaven." and he said, "To be always united with Jesus, this is my life plan."

Once his First Communion was made, Carlo did everything he could to get himself to daily Mass, often times dragging his parents with him. Before or after Mass he would spend time in adoration in front of the tabernacle. Carlo once said, "When we face the sun we get a tan...but when we stand before Jesus in the Eucharist, we become Saints."

He prayed the rosary daily, went to confession weekly and looked to the Saints as inspiration for his spiritual life. He loved to visit Assisi where his favorite Saint, Francis, lived and served God. Although Carlo loved playing video games like Pokemon and Mario, he limited himself to one hour per week to play. He did this as a penance and to grow in spiritual discipline even when his friends urged him to play more often.

By the age of nine, Carlo was studying college level textbooks on computer coding. Being well advanced in the area, he understood the negative side of technology, but he also realized that he could use his talents and interests in the field for good.

At age eleven, Carlo taught his first catechism class, and devoted himself to other charitable activities. He was an altar server, defended schoolmates who were bullied, volunteered at the city's homeless shelter and comforted friends whose parents were going through a divorce. He offered everyone he met a cheerful smile and treated them with dignity, no matter their state in life.

Carlo pointed out to his mother that, "There are queues in front of a concert, in front of a football match, but I don't see these queues in front of the Blessed Sacrament." In this statement, Carlo used the computer term queue to describe his observation of lines of people waiting to see a concert or a sporting event, but not to visit Jesus in the Eucharist. This saddened Carlo deeply. This recognition, combined with his challenge of getting his second grade catechism class to behave in adoration lead him to speak to his parish priest and friend Fr. Mario. Fr. Mario suggested Carlo try telling the children stories about St. Tarcisus or the Eucharistic miracle of Lanciano.

At the time, Carlo was unfamiliar with Eucharistic miracles, so he went to the library to learn more. He was so inspired by the miracles he read about that he began a four years long project of developing his website to catalog the Eucharistic Miracles of the world. By doing this, Carlo hoped to foster a belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, draw others to the Catholic faith and possibly encourage some adoration lines to form at churches.

In 2004 when Carlo was thirteen, his Eucharistic Miracle website was launched. He asked his parents to take him on pilgrimages to the sites of all the Eucharistic miracles he cataloged, many of which are in Italy. However, his pilgrimages were cut short. At the age of fifteen, Carlo was diagnosed with an aggressive form of leukemia. On hearing the news of his poor prognosis, Carlo responded, "I am happy to die, because I have lived my life without wasting a minute on those things that do not please God." He offered his sufferings from leukemia to God for the pope and the Church. His friend, Fr. Mario, came to the hospital to hear Carlo's final confession, give him last rights and his final Communion (or Viaticum) shortly before he slipped into a coma. Carlo died within just a few days of his diagnosis on October 12, 2006.

His feast day is celebrated on October the 12.

On Thursday, May 23, 2024 it was announced that Pope Francis has recognized a second miracle as a result of Carlo Acutis' intercession. So, the Pope will soon convene a consistory to set a date for the formal canonization ceremony.

Carlo Acutis is someone we can all easily identify with since he lived during most of our own lifetimes and we can see similarities in ourselves, our children or our grandchildren. The panels displayed during the Eucharistic miracle presentations at St. Pat's were printed from Carlo's website. His web address is

<http://www.miracolieuucaristici.org>

For anyone who wishes to explore these documented miracles in more detail.

And please, share it with everyone you know. Carlo would love that!

Blessed (soon to be Saint) Carlo Acutis, patron of youth, the internet and computer programmers, pray for us!

St. Patrick Parish– 33 Weeks to Eucharistic Glory

June 2nd– Week Sixteen

Lesson

We are blind. We are paralyzed. We are deaf. We are possessed. Ask Jesus in the Eucharist to heal you.

Virtue of the day

Trust: The virtue of trust is in many ways an acknowledgement of the reality that God is in control. It is also a belief that God has a plan for our lives and will provide for us in that plan. One of the most practical ways to grow in the virtue of trust is to become more trustworthy. Trust determines how we participate in relationships. Who we trust reveals our character. The gift of trust is a tranquil soul.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Every day I long for more of You.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot receive You sacramentally at this moment, I invite You to come and dwell in my heart.

May this spiritual communion increase my desire for the Eucharist.

You are the healer of my soul.

Take the blindness from my eyes, the deafness from my ears, the darkness from my mind, and the hardness from my heart.

Fill me with the grace, wisdom, and courage to do Your will in all things.

My Lord and my God, draw me close to You, nearer than ever before.

Amen.
