ALTAR SOCIETY BAKE SALE A HUGE SUCCESS

The St Patrick Altar Society is ever so grateful to our parish family for their generous donations to our annual Bake Sale. Due to your support, we collected $300 more dollars than last year. Baked goods donated by parishioners increased this year too!

Our group of dedicated ladies supports the parish behind the scenes. We take care of the needs of the altar, beautify the church for the Christmas and Easter seasons, reach out to the parish with gifts on Mother's Day, Father's Day, and St. Nicholas Day, fund the "Little Saints" for the students in the parish school and tee shirts for VBS. Your donations make all of this happen! Thank you for your support.

ST. BRIGID'S PANTRY IS COLLECTING FOR WELCOME HOUSE THIS MONTH

Our mission is to provide a continuum of services that will end homelessness and promote stability for each person we serve.

Our Vision is to be the leader in guiding clients from housing uncertainty to housing stability. We accomplish this through the services we provide, such as housing, service coordination and outreach & stability.

What We Need: Going into the winter months we are very low on donated items, we are especially low on hygiene items, deodorant, toothpaste, razors, chapstick etc. and food items, especially snacks such as granola bars, individual nut, pretzel ... packages and bottled water.

CONSIDER VOLUNTEERING AS A EUCHARISTIC MINISTER

As St. Pat's grows we would love to see more parishioners becoming eucharistic ministers or volunteering in any way.

Contact the office or use the QR code in the ministry section.

"Personally, to see the young men and women that have recently volunteered does my heart well knowing that the Catholic church is alive and reaching our children." a parishioner

EUCHARIST TO THE HOMEBOUND

Please consider bringing the eucharist to the homebound, contact Paul Washnock for information.

VIRTUS TRAINING

To help in any capacity with children it is necessary to be Virtus trained.

All training is available throughout the year in different locations. Call the office to find out where these locations are for your convenience.

JESUS DAY

Our 2nd grade CCD and school children had their Jesus Day retreat last Saturday! This retreat helps prepare them for their first reconciliation next month! Keep them in your prayers!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES: MENTAL HEALTH

Taking care of your mental health is just as important as caring for your physical health. When stress, grief, or life's challenges get overwhelming, you don't have to face them alone. We offer compassionate, professional counseling for individuals, children, teens, couples, and families. Our licensed counselors provide support for anxiety, depression, grief and loss, life transitions, past trauma, and more.

Counseling can help strengthen relationships, improve communication, and support emotional well-being.

We serve everyone regardless of faith. We accept most insurance and offer a sliding fee scale, meeting you where you are, so care is within reach. CALL: 859.581.8974

VISIT: covingtoncharities.org/services/counseling-services

Our annual Seminarian Education Collection will take place this weekend. We ask you to prayerfully consider supporting this important collection, which helps provide for the education and formation of our seminarians as they prepare to become our future priests. Thank you for your continued generosity and for keeping our seminarians in your prayers.

Saint Patrick's Breastplate Prayer For Protection

I arise today
 Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
 Through belief in the Threeness,
 Through confession of the Oneness
 of the Creator of creation.

I arise today
 Through the strength of Christ's birth
 with His baptism,
 Through the strength of His crucifixion
 with His burial,
 Through the strength of His resurrection with His ascension,
 Through the strength of His descent for the judgment of doom.

I arise today
 Through the strength of the love of
 cherubim,
 In the obedience of angels,
 In the service of archangels,
 In the hope of resurrection to meet
 with reward,
 In the prayers of patriarchs,
 In the predictions of prophets,
 In the preaching of apostles,
 In the faith of confessors,
 In the innocence of holy virgins,
 In the deeds of righteous men.

I arise today, through
 The strength of heaven,
 The light of the sun,
 The radiance of the moon,
 The splendour of fire,
 The speed of lightning,
 The swiftness of wind,
 The depth of the sea,
 The stability of the earth,
 The firmness of rock.

I arise today, through
 God's strength to pilot me,
 God's might to uphold me,
 God's wisdom to guide me,
 God's eye to look before me,
 God's ear to hear me,
 God's word to speak for me,
 God's hand to guard me,
 God's shield to protect me,
 God's host to save me
 From snares of devils,
 From temptation of vices,
 From everyone who shall wish me ill,
 afar and near.

I summon today
 All these powers between me and those evils,
 Against every cruel and merciless power
 that may oppose my body and soul,
 Against incantations of false prophets,
 Against black laws of pagandom,
 Against false laws of heretics,
 Against craft of idolatry,
 Against spells of witches and smiths
 and wizards,
 Against every knowledge that corrupts
 man's body and soul;
 Christ to shield me today
 Against poison, against burning,
 Against drowning, against wounding,
 So that there may come to me an abundance of reward.

Christ with me,
 Christ before me,
 Christ behind me,
 Christ in me,
 Christ beneath me,
 Christ above me,
 Christ on my right,
 Christ on my left,
 Christ when I lie down,
 Christ when I sit down,
 Christ when I arise,
 Christ in the heart of every man who
 thinks of me,
 Christ in the mouth of everyone who
 speaks of me,
 Christ in every eye that sees me,
 Christ in every ear that hears me.

The Mass:UNDERSTANDING THE CONFITEOR

The Confiteor as part of the Penitential Act near the beginning of Mass. It's a communal moment of honesty and humility: everyone admits they've fallen short, in what they've done and what they've failed to do, and asks God's mercy. It's not about guilt for its own sake; it's about clearing the air before hearing Scripture and celebrating the Eucharist, so the community can enter the rest of the liturgy together with sincerity and trust.

It prepares people to receive God's mercy. In Catholic teaching, the Confiteor and the Penitential Act at Mass help forgive venial sins when they're prayed with sincere contrition. They don't replace sacramental confession, especially for mortal sins, which still require reconciliation. Think of it as a real but ordinary way of being cleansed so you can more fully enter into the liturgy.

ANOINTING OF SICK/ LAST RITES"My loved one is seriously ill"*a message from Father JeffThe best approach is usually:

Before or upon entering hospice:

ask for Confession and Anointing of the Sick.

As death becomes imminent: call the priest again for Viaticum and prayers for the dying, together with whatever additional sacramental care is appropriate.

Anointing a month—or even longer—before death is not premature. The Church encourages it for people who are seriously ill, not only for those in their final hours. If the illness substantially worsens, the person may appropriately receive the sacrament again; the priest can make that pastoral judgment.

Do not delay until the person is unconscious, unable to swallow, or close to death. If the person is able to confess and receive Communion, calling earlier allows fuller participation. If death is sudden or the person cannot communicate, still call a priest immediately: the sacrament can sometimes be administered when the person is unconscious if there is reasonable indication that the person would have desired it.

The sacrament is not merely a sign that death is imminent. It gives union with Christ's Passion, peace and courage, forgiveness when Confession is not possible, healing if conducive to salvation, and preparation for eternal life. Physical recovery is possible if God wills, but the sacrament's spiritual grace is the central gift.

You could say to the priest or hospice chaplain:

"My family member is seriously ill and entering hospice.

Could you come for Confession, Anointing of the Sick, and, if possible, Holy Communion?"
