GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 26, 2025

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 18:9-14

Every now and then readers of these reflections write letters in which they object to something. Years ago, this Gospel of Luke 18 prompted such an email. A man wrote to me: "I find it deeply offensive that you suggest we are still sinners once we are God's sons and daughters." His objection stirred in me a profound awareness of the paradox at the heart of our faith. Are we sinners or beloved children of God? In this Gospel (Luke 18:9-14), a tax collector appears as one who has missed the mark. His sins have isolated him. His breast-beating is not an act of self-flagellation for pride's sake but a heartfelt admission of his failure and unworthiness. Remarkably, Jesus honors the candid humility of the parable's penitent. Why? Because we are always in need of mercy, always. But even more, perhaps because on the cross, Jesus will fully embrace a similar place of humiliation and rejection. He will enter into the most shameful, offensive place of the sinner so that we might "go home justified."

There is a sacred tension in admitting that we are sinners and yet have profound hope. We are beloved sons and daughters of God, growing precisely through our honest acceptance of failure. When we cry, "Have mercy on us," during Mass or when we repeat the "Jesus Prayer" in quiet moments, or in the confessional, we embrace our imperfections as fertile ground for divine grace. In doing so, we follow Christ's example — finding true exaltation in the humble acknowledgment of our human frailty.

— Father John Muir

WALKING THIS JOURNEY

Good Afternoon,
After a lot of hard work from one of my very best friends to design this incredible site, and a lot of conversations with Dad, I present Bo's Dugout. A blog where Dad and I will share our respective and joint journey with ALS.
Each month, we will be featuring a new charity that directly supports persons living with ALS, and the people who love them. The donation link, for the moment, will take you to the ALS Walk page, which will be accepting donations for our team (also Bo's Dugout) until December 31st.
Share the site far and wide www.bosdugout.com if you feel so compelled, and thank you for walking with us on this journey. ALS is unforgiving, and always wins, but with your love and support, I have faith that someday we will strike out ALS.
Love, McKenzie and Bo
