SHARE YOUR EVANGELIZATION STORY"DOING SMALL THINGS WITH GREAT LOVE"

Mother Theresa

As we are in the season of Ordinary times in our church calendar, let us realize that our relationship with our Lord is not ordinary but so much more. In the joy of our resurrected Lord, we continue to evangelize in big or small ways to each other and to the world.

Father Jeff is wanting to hear from you, your story how God has graced you with His presence and allow this to be shared with the family of Saint Patrick's.

CHARITIES: MENTAL HEALTH

Taking care of your mental health is just as important as caring for your physical health. When stress, grief, or life's challenges get overwhelming, you don't have to face them alone. We offer compassionate, professional counseling for individuals, children, teens, couples, and families. Our licensed counselors provide support for anxiety, depression, grief and loss, life transitions, past trauma, and more.

Counseling can help strengthen relationships, improve communication, and support emotional well-being. We serve everyone regardless of faith. We accept most insurance and offer a sliding fee scale, meeting you where you are, so care is within reach. CALL: 859.581.8974

EUCHARIST TO THE HOMEBOUND

Please consider bringing the eucharist to the homebound, contact Paul Washnock for information.

This prayer was found outside the drop box in the adoration chapel, picked up by a parishioner and wanted to share with others.

The (new) Lord's PrayerLord's Prayer

By a 15-year-old school kid who got an A+ for this entry (TOTALLY AWESOME)!

The Lord's Prayer is not allowed in most U.S. Public schools any more.

A kid in Minnesota wrote the following NEW School Prayer:

Now I sit me down in school
Where praying is against the rule.
For this great nation under God
Finds mention of Him very odd.
If scripture now the class recites,
It violates the Bill of Rights.
And anytime my head I bow
Becomes a Federal matter now.

Our hair can be purple, orange or green,
That's no offense; it's a freedom scene.
The law is specific, the law is precise.
Prayers spoken aloud are a serious vice.

For praying in a public hall
Might offend someone with no faith at all.
In silence alone we must meditate,
God's name is prohibited by the State.

We're allowed to cuss and dress like freaks,
And pierce our noses, tongues and cheeks.
They've outlawed guns, but FIRST the Bible.

To quote the Good Book makes me liable.

We can elect a pregnant Senior Queen,
And the 'unwed daddy,' our Senior King.
It's 'inappropriate' to teach right from wrong.
We're taught that such 'judgments' do not belong.

We can get our condoms and birth controls,
Study witchcraft, vampires and totem poles.
But the Ten Commandments are not allowed,
No word of God must reach this crowd.

It's scary here I must confess,
When chaos reigns the school's a mess.
So, Lord, this silent plea I make:
Should I be shot; My soul please take!

Amen

"TAKE AWAY FROM LAST WEEKS HOMILY

Last week's mass was about the greatest Commandments LOVE GOD AND LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR. Father Jeff said when you ask a favor from someone it shows that they have meaning in your life and that you love them. I felt that was such a great perspective as so many people don't want to "bother" others, so as a friend we need to ask for help when needed and show others they are loved.

Last week's gospel was so convicting for sure! I loved the parable Father gave about the wind and the sun, and how with the wind all of those forces in the world make us grasp onto our ego and not ask for help whereas God is the gentle warmth of the sun who gradually makes us feel that love of God and we slowly let go of all of those things in the world and especially the ego and we start looking more to charity.

ANOINTING OF SICK/ LAST RITES"My loved one is seriously ill"*a message from Father JeffThe best approach is usually:

Before or upon entering hospice:

ask for Confession and Anointing of the Sick.

As death becomes imminent: call the priest again for Viaticum and prayers for the dying, together with whatever additional sacramental care is appropriate.

Anointing a month—or even longer—before death is not premature. The Church encourages it for people who are seriously ill, not only for those in their final hours. If the illness substantially worsens, the person may appropriately receive the sacrament again; the priest can make that pastoral judgment.

Do not delay until the person is unconscious, unable to swallow, or close to death. If the person is able to confess and receive Communion, calling earlier allows fuller participation. If death is sudden or the person cannot communicate, still call a priest immediately: the sacrament can sometimes be administered when the person is unconscious if there is reasonable indication that the person would have desired it.

The sacrament is not merely a sign that death is imminent. It gives union with Christ's Passion, peace and courage, forgiveness when Confession is not possible, healing if conducive to salvation, and preparation for eternal life. Physical recovery is possible if God wills, but the sacrament's spiritual grace is the central gift.

You could say to the priest or hospice chaplain:

"My family member is seriously ill and entering hospice. Could you come for Confession, Anointing of the Sick, and, if possible, Holy Communion?"
