SHARE YOUR EVANGELIZATION STORY

"DOING SMALL THINGS WITH GREAT LOVE"
Mother Theresa

As we are in the season of Ordinary times in our church calendar, let us realize that our relationship with our Lord is not ordinary but so much more. In the joy of our resurrected Lord, we continue to evangelize in big or small ways to each other and to the world. Father Jeff is wanting to hear from you, your story how God has graced you with His presence and allow this to be shared with the family of Saint Patrick's.

CHARITIES: MENTAL HEALTH

Taking care of your mental health is just as important as caring for your physical health. When stress, grief, or life's challenges get overwhelming, you don't have to face them alone. We offer compassionate, professional counseling for individuals, children, teens, couples, and families. Our licensed counselors provide support for anxiety, depression, grief and loss, life transitions, past trauma, and more.
Counseling can help strenghten relationships, improve communication, and support emotional well-being.
We serve everyone regardless of faith. We accept most insurance and offer a sliding fee scale, meeting you where you are, so care is within reach. CALL: 859.581.8974

Blessed are the poor in spirit
WHAT DOES IT MEAN!

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3). What did He mean? Simply this: We must be humble in our spirits. If you put the word "humble" in place of the word "poor," you will understand what He meant.

In other words, when we come to God, we must realize our own sin and our spiritual emptiness and poverty. We must not be self-satisfied or proud in our hearts, thinking we don't really need God. If we are, God cannot bless us. The Bible says, "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble" (James 4:6).

Pride can take all kinds of forms, but the worst is spiritual pride. Often the richer we are in things, the poorer we are in our hearts. Have you faced your own need of Christ? Do you realize that you are a sinner and need God's forgiveness? Don't let pride or anything else get in the way, but turn to Christ in humility and faith—and He will bless you and save you.

"TAKE AWAY FROM LAST WEEKS HOMILY

Last week's mass was about the greatest Commandments LOVE GOD AND LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR. Father Jeff said when you ask a favor from someone it shows that they have meaning in your life and that you love them. I felt that was such a great perspective as so many people don't want to "bother" others, so as a friend we need to ask for help when needed and show others they are loved.

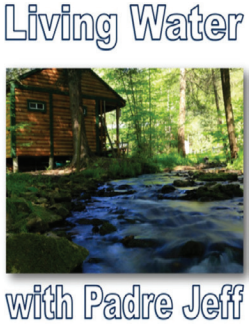

Last week's gospel was so convicting for sure! I loved the parable Father gave about the wind and the sun, and how with the wind all of those forces in the world make us grasp onto our ego and not ask for help whereas God is the gentle warmth of the sun who gradually makes us feel that love of God and we slowly let go of all of those things in the world and especially the ego and we start looking more to charity.

ANOINTING OF SICK/ LAST RITES
"My loved one is seriously ill"

a message from Father Jeff

The best approach is usually:

Before or upon entering hospice:
ask for Confession and Anointing of the Sick.
As death becomes imminent: call the priest again for Viaticum and prayers for the dying, together with whatever additional sacramental care is appropriate.
Anointing a month—or even longer—before death is not premature. The Church encourages it for people who are seriously ill, not only for those in their final hours. If the illness substantially worsens, the person may appropriately receive the sacrament again; the priest can make that pastoral judgment.
Do not delay until the person is unconscious, unable to swallow, or close to death. If the person is able to confess and receive Communion, calling earlier allows fuller participation. If death is sudden or the person cannot communicate, still call a priest immediately: the sacrament can sometimes be administered when the person is unconscious if there is reasonable indication that the person would have desired it.
The sacrament is not merely a sign that death is imminent. It gives union with Christ's Passion, peace and courage, forgiveness when Confession is not possible, healing if conducive to salvation, and preparation for eternal life. Physical recovery is possible if God wills, but the sacrament's spiritual grace is the central gift.
You could say to the priest or hospice chaplain:
"My family member is seriously ill and entering hospice. Could you come for Confession, Anointing of the Sick, and, if possible, Holy Communion?
