BE A PART OF WHAT COMES NEXT

Rick Vilardo is our generosity mission leader. This next year, we approach another milestone in our service to God's people with the opportunity to extend our outreach through our school mission. Notice the word, "our" ! Rick's approach is very much "our" vision, "our" mission. Everyone is blessed and has an opportunity to be part of this milestone in such a way that we can look back and say "we have helped make a difference in our own time and place by expanding evangelization through our parish ministries and our school mission."

Only God knows the people, families and children who will be touched or already are touched by His graces. We are simply giving God space to work His Grace. This includes CCD families, the grandparents , Bible study participants-the whole parish. What benefits one part of the parish builds up everybody else as the Body of Christ.

We thank you for those able to attend our town hall meetings. Our FAQ has been developed through our good conversations with the parishioners to build and answer people's questions and concerns. It has also been very enlightening to hear the responses to the question: "What excites you about this mission?" People generally are excited. Not one person was asked for money.

That is what we like most of all about Rick's approach: It really isn't about asking for money. Our leadership meetings and our town hall meetings have been about discernment. In other words: Go directly to God and ask what you can contribute generously to "our" mission. No more questions or follow ups beyond that. The leadership style fits nicely with that of our parish: How do we pray together? How do we discern what God wants and sees as our needs? We are asked only to discern. The rest will follow prayerfully and according to God's Plan not our own.

So now is the time of discernment. Of course, there will be a time early next year to respond to how God leads you. The most important thing is just to take time and discern.

Because we are making good progress due to prayerful discernment and consideration from outside sources, we are hoping some of what we will receive will go to tuition assistance for children and families who would like the opportunity to come to our catholic grade school but cannot afford it. All of this is orchestrated through Our Lady of Knock Foundation.

Thank you Rick and team Jesus for leading us in discernment.

Peace in Christ, Fr Jeff

EXAMPLE

SUNDAY'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

In Jesus' parable, a servant buries his master's talent and explains: "Master, I knew you were a demanding person...so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground" The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant's fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship.

How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God's gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master's goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

— Father John Muir

ANOINTING OF SICK/ LAST RITES
"My loved one is seriously ill"

a message from Father Jeff

The best approach is usually:

Before or upon entering hospice:
ask for Confession and Anointing of the Sick.
As death becomes imminent: call the priest again for Viaticum and prayers for the dying, together with whatever additional sacramental care is appropriate.

Anointing a month—or even longer—before death is not premature. The Church encourages it for people who are seriously ill, not only for those in their final hours. If the illness substantially worsens, the person may appropriately receive the sacrament again; the priest can make that pastoral judgment.

Do not delay until the person is unconscious, unable to swallow, or close to death. If the person is able to confess and receive Communion, calling earlier allows fuller participation. If death is sudden or the person cannot communicate, still call a priest immediately: the sacrament can sometimes be administered when the person is unconscious if there is reasonable indication that the person would have desired it.

The sacrament is not merely a sign that death is imminent. It gives union with Christ's Passion, peace and courage, forgiveness when Confession is not possible, healing if conducive to salvation, and preparation for eternal life. Physical recovery is possible if God wills, but the sacrament's spiritual grace is the central gift.

You could say to the priest or hospice chaplain:
"My family member is seriously ill and entering hospice. Could you come for Confession, Anointing of the Sick, and, if possible, Holy Communion?

The Lord's Prayer
Dear L J.(Lord Jesus)
The deeper man in a man, and the deeper woman in the woman, can find no better way to a better world than to become active contemplatives, rather than active revolutionaries, if we want to spread Light and not darkness.

We begin, as my students taught me over the years, to pray and contemplate Your Prayer.

The Our Father.

Our:

I put all my relationships in your light and listen to You in my heart,the deepest part of human intelligence.

Father:

My dignity, our dignity, is received from Above.
From The Father's love for each of us personally and uniquely.

Who art in heaven:

Inform my conscience from heaven.

Hallowed be thy name:

My actions, with its object and intentions, bring in line with Your Person, Your Name, Your Light.

Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done:

I love You above all, with all my heart, mind, soul, and strength.
Beginning with Your Will, Your Word in the Decalogue.

On earth as it is in heaven:

Continuing to fulfill Your Word in the Beatitudes... To love neighbor as oneself and bring heaven to earth and earth to heaven.

Give us your daily bread:

Bread is Grace in the all forms: Actual, sanctifying, preventative and sacramental,Eucharistic Bread.

Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us:

Learn forgiveness by acknowledging hurt and also praying for your enemy to enter the Kingdom, the Trialogue.
Confession helps redirect resentment, anger, knowing I too have been forgiven from the past.

Lead us not into temptation:

Discern the work of the Holy Spirit from the wounded human spirit and from the evil spirit which sneaks in and is at work every day. " But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control "(Gal 5) Lord, I ask myself where is my reaction to every day temptations coming from: my wounded spirit, the evil spirit or the Holy Spirit?

Deliver us from evil:

Spiritual warfare. Mortal combat
Fight evil with good.

Amen:

I trust Your Light and Love.
