ANOINTING OF SICK/ LAST RITES
"My loved one is seriously ill"
a message from Father Jeff

The best approach is usually:

Before or upon entering hospice:
ask for Confession and Anointing of the Sick.
As death becomes imminent: call the priest again for Viaticum and prayers for the dying, together with whatever additional sacramental care is appropriate.
Anointing a month—or even longer—before death is not premature. The Church encourages it for people who are seriously ill, not only for those in their final hours. If the illness substantially worsens, the person may appropriately receive the sacrament again; the priest can make that pastoral judgment.
Do not delay until the person is unconscious, unable to swallow, or close to death. If the person is able to confess and receive Communion, calling earlier allows fuller participation. If death is sudden or the person cannot communicate, still call a priest immediately: the sacrament can sometimes be administered when the person is unconscious if there is reasonable indication that the person would have desired it.
The sacrament is not merely a sign that death is imminent. It gives union with Christ's Passion, peace and courage, forgiveness when Confession is not possible, healing if conducive to salvation, and preparation for eternal life. Physical recovery is possible if God wills, but the sacrament's spiritual grace is the central gift.
You could say to the priest or hospice chaplain:
"My family member is seriously ill and entering hospice. Could you come for Confession, Anointing of the Sick, and, if possible, Holy Communion?

Help St. Patrick School & Parish reach our $6,000 Giving Tuesday goal!

On Tues. Dec.1, 2026, St. Patrick will participate in Give Catholic NKY, a special day of giving to support Catholic organizations throughout Northern Kentucky.

As our school continues to grow & prepares to welcome 8th grade, we are raising funds to purchase additional Chromebooks & support GoGuardian, an online safety & classroom management platform. These resources will benefit both St. Patrick School & our parish CCD religious education program, enhancing classroom learning, supporting MAP testing, & promoting safe, responsible technology use.

Early online giving begins Nov. 24, with our main Giving Tuesday celebration on Dec. 1.

Every gift, no matter the size, helps us invest in our children's education & faith formation.

Visit www.GiveCatholicNKY.org to support St. Patrick School & Parish!

Thank you for helping our children grow in faith, knowledge, & opportunity!

SUNDAY'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Matthew 25:31-46

I remember middle school baseball tryouts. A friend of mine, Robert, was trying to make the team to please his father, but his heart wasn't in it. He was lackadaisical and unenergetic. When the final cut-list was announced, and his name wasn't on it, he was relieved. He realized the coach was not insulting him but essentially telling him, "Bobby, this only works if you actually want to play ball." I was saddened he'd miss out on the fun, but I knew it was best. Putting Robert onto the team would not have been kindness. It would have made him miserable.

Jesus speaks to us today about his identity as our King and Judge. He separates those who inherit the kingdom from those who do not. The King explains, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). His judgment hinges on willingness to participate in love. Heaven is not a prize imposed at the end of life. It is a life freely chosen and engaged. Hell is not a destination prepared for human beings, but a terrible and sad acknowledgment of an opting out which God never intends for us.

Jesus' role as judge proclaims to us: "Heaven only works if you actually want to love." How do we know if we want it? How we serve the hungry, the sick, the imprisoned, and the forgotten. These acts of mercy are not arbitrary tests. They are the very shape of divine life. There is no better game to play than this. We ought to begin playing it right now. The King will come to judge us.

— Father John Muir
